

Falken's Maze

Is it a game or is it real?

Both of us seem to be playing

The side you're on, it spins its wheel and I have nothing that I'm saying

I'm lost inside a maze it seems with no way to get home the walls are cracked and I have seen that I must be here alone turn right, turn left i'm back again

back at the place that I had started turn left, turn right but not tonight

can it be that I've departed

I've found this place -- been lost for days

I know that I'll be abandoned

If I get out I'll be alone

If I stay in I'm stranded
