

I Can Feel You – Mike Pellegrino - 01-OCT-2000

It's just 30 seconds til the phone rings i can feel the electric eyes staring through the window bouncing towards the skies the message that it tells me is to hang up while i can a fly lands on the headset i crush it with my hand

i can feel you
i can feel you
i can feel you
i can feel

i've pulled out the receiver i boarded up the doors the neighbors say i'm crazy i can't take it anymore if i don't make an exception they cannot track me down they're sendin' in the wrecker but i'm nowhere to be found

i can feel you
i can feel you
i can feel you
i can feel -- you

upstairs in the attic the girl's gone mad feeling lots of downtime the doctors say she's sad

i can feel you - she can feel you

i don't know what is with them they haven't called in days the kitchen is my prison and this mansion is my maze someone will finally find me my fingers swollen blue the first time they will fear me the first time that i feel you

i can feel you
i can feel you
i can feel you
i can feel you
