

“I Quit”
Words and Music
by: Michael K. Pellegrino

verses:

G- the stage is set, the i jump down and	Eb board is clear the mark the spot	D- slate is clean, let's on the left and	G- start right here up on top in the middle so i draw two lines	i have seen you've in the sand i	dropped a dime it's must be right with the	in between devil's hand
you follow through a barrier i'll	around the rocks put for you way	in the middle again, but down in Hell like	up on top lovers do so you follow me to the you write me a letter	depths again with an between my lines	awkward smile and here we go now	'round the bend one last time

bridge:

there's only	G one thing	D dim that i can	E- do rise	C above this game and	A meet with you and you	G see we	G dim both cannot	E- win
but we	C play on,	A outside and	D in (faster)

chorus:

G but what's the	Bb point? This is	F useless, i give	Bb up, i	C concede,	G i quit
	Bb	F	G

structure:

2x verse
1x chorus
2x verse
1x chorus
1x bridge
1x chorus
2x verse
4x chorus